

Dona V Continues the Journey with New "President Nebuchadnezzar" Video from When Last

After the release of his album "When Last", reggae artist Dona V continues to build on the project's momentum with the release of the official music video for "President Nebuchadnezzar." Produced by legendary reggae pioneer King Jammy and released via VPAL Music, the visual brings another chapter of the album's message-driven storytelling to life.

Rooted in biblical imagery and spiritual reflection, "President Nebuchadnezzar" draws inspiration from the story of the Babylonian king whose pride ultimately gave way to humility. Through thoughtful lyricism and classic roots reggae production, Dona V delivers a timely reminder about leadership, accountability, and the importance of remaining grounded regardless of status or success.

The video arrives as When Last continues to resonate with reggae audiences worldwide. Since its release, the ten-track album has earned international radio support and praise for its authentic songwriting, pairing King Jammy's signature production with messages of faith, perseverance, compassion, and self-reflection. Songs including the title track "When Last," "Time To Rise," "I Will Be Fine," and "Winner All Of The Time" have further cemented Dona V's reputation as an artist dedicated to substance as much as sound.

"I see myself as a messenger," says Dona V. "Every song has a purpose. Whether people are dancing, reflecting, or finding encouragement through the music, I want them to leave with something positive that stays with them."

With the release of the "President Nebuchadnezzar" video, Dona V once again reinforces his commitment to creating reggae music that entertains while inspiring conversation. As When Last continues its global reach, the project stands as a testament to the enduring power of conscious reggae and the timeless messages it carries.
